

BEYOND THE LINES

They're pushing the envelope with every stroke, and showing the world what they're made of. Verve highlights the works of several artists from the Subcontinent who are garnering acclaim all over the globe

So That Is How It Happened

How Come

NOWNOTNOW

Delhi-based artist Sheila Makhijani's latest show in the Big Apple presents works on paper and paintings on canvases. The artist plays with colours, strokes and depths to create lively compositions in her artworks.

NowNotNow is on display at Talwar Gallery, New York until December 19, 2015.

AN UNFORSEEN SITUATION

Pakistani artist Bani Abidi's first solo museum exhibition in America presents a video installation of her 2014 creation, Funland, as well as a new series of videos, An Unforeseen Situation. Abidi, represented by Kolkata's Experimenter gallery, speaks of themes of melancholia, visual histories and patriotism through her works.

An Unforeseen Situation is on display at Dallas Contemporary, Texas until December 21, 2015.

Beach

Cinema 2

Cinema

Sympathy vs Empathy

HOUSE OF CARDS

Think of Indian art, and M. F. Husain is probably one of the first names that comes to mind. The maestro's son, Owais Husain, who has exhibited in America, Europe and Asia, has collaborated with Singapore's LASALLE College of the Arts to create a photographic project, House Of Cards. This 'house', being built by Husain and the college students over the course of five months, will bring the theme of identity to life.

House Of Cards will be presented at Project Space, LASALLE College, Singapore from January 30 to February 18, 2016.

ART BASEL MIAMI BEACH

If you're Florida-bound this December, don't miss the American edition of Art Basel. Among the 267 galleries from across the world displaying their aesthetic offerings is also India's Gallery SKE. A part of the Nova section of the event, the art space will be presenting the works of reputed artists David Alesworth, Sudarshan Shetty and Avinash Veeraraghavan. Galleria Continua, that represents Mumbai-based artist Shilpa Gupta, will also be a part of the event.

Art Basel Miami Beach will take place in Miami, Florida from December 3-6, 2015. Visit www.artbasel.com/miami-beach for a complete list of galleries.

AVINASH VEERARAGHAVAN

Retribution of the Anima

AVINASH VEERARAGHAVAN

Where Is The Line

DAVID ALESWORTH

The Political Tiger Tree, Devils Tree, Blackboard Tree, detail

DAVID ALESWORTH

Hyde Park Kashan

NASREEN MOHAMEDI: WAITING IS A PART OF INTENSE LIVING

For aficionados of Indian modernism, Nasreen Mohamedi is one of the many revered names. Two hundred and seven of the late creator's artworks, including drawings, collages, photographs and oil on canvas paintings are on show in the Spanish capital for international audiences to laud and learn from.

Nasreen Mohamedi: Waiting Is A Part Of Intense Living is on display at the Reina Sofia museum, Madrid until January 11, 2016.

Vintage, Black And White Photograph

Rejection Of A Home

REJECTION OF A HOME

Rathin Burman's site-specific installation, Rejection Of A Home, explores the narrative of refugees attempting to rebuild their lives in West Bengal. The artist, who lives and works in Kolkata, portrays the Bangladeshi migrants' stories and experiences through his poignant artworks. V

-HT

Rejection Of A Home is on display at Institut d'Art Contemporain, Lyon in France until November 8, 2015.